Phato & Pakhro Zones – The Hidden Treasures of Jim Corbett

The Phato and Pakhro Zones are among the newest and most offbeat additions to Jim Corbett National Park's safari circuits. Known for their raw, untouched wilderness, these zones provide a less-crowded yet equally thrilling jungle experience. Their rugged charm, dense forests, and high chances of wildlife sightings make them a favorite for explorers who seek something beyond the popular trails.

Why Visit Phato & Pakhro Zones?

- New & Undisturbed: These zones are relatively less explored, ensuring peaceful safaris.
 - High Tiger Activity: Known for frequent tiger movement and fresh pugmarks.
 - Rich Flora & Fauna: Dense sal forests, riverbeds, and hilly terrains.
 - Wild Elephants & Leopards: Both zones are famous for elephant herds and leopard sightings.
 - Birdwatcher's Delight: Spot hornbills, kingfishers, eagles, and other exotic birds.

Important Guidelines

- Entry is only with pre-booked government permits.
Limited jeeps per day – early booking is essential.
- Carry valid photo ID proof at the time of safari.
- Entry through Phato Gate (near Ramnagar) or Pakhro Gate (near Kotdwar) depending on the zone.

- Follow Corbett's eco-guidelines: no littering, no loud noise, no stepping out of jeeps.
